DETAILED ACTION

Claims 22 and 23 are pending in this application.

Action Summary

1. The rejection of claims 22 and 23 under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting over claims 1 and 20 of US Patent No. 6,146,648 is hereby withdrawn as a timely filed terminal disclaimer has been filed.
2. The rejection of claims 22 and 23 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) over Yang et al in view of Allen is being maintained for the reasons stated in the office action dated March 26, 2001.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments filed January 21, 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicants argue that the limitation is proper and support is present in the application. Applicants rely on page 1 of the specification to teach the invention is a paper product imparting a soft, slippery feel to the paper while being dry. Applicants also rely on US Patent No. 2,944,931 to teach that the addition of lanolin has drawbacks such as odor, and decrease sheet absorption therefore the addition of lanolin is disadvantageous. It is the position of the examiner that there is nothing of record to establish that the presence of lanolin is detrimental. Applicant must recite "consisting of" to exclude the lanolin of the prior art. Nowhere in the specification is there a teaching of avoiding odor. Applicant discusses avoiding irritation and redness and the imparting to the sheet a more slippery feel. Applicant cannot refer to other prior art to argue that an ingredient is detrimental without the presence of some statement in the specification that a specific property (i.e. odor) is not desired.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
